

Looking Ahead: A Year at the Norwich Historical Society

Thank you for joining us in preserving and celebrating the history of Norwich. In addition to maintaining our regular hours at the Lewis House, where you can view the film/photo/oral history farm exhibit and make research inquiries of all sorts, NHS is planning a full year of activities. This fall we bring history indoors with a workshop series about preserving family history. Below is an abbreviated calendar for the rest of the year. Check our website at www.norwichhistory.org for complete, up-to-date information.
